STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1899.

NO. 97

DANVILLE.

The Missionary Society of the M. E. church had a spelling match Friday evening. The Baptist Mission Band met with Mrs. D. W. Mahan Saturday afternoon.

A Young Men's Day, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. was held here Sunday. Services for men only at the Methodist church in the afternoon and union services at the 1st Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Addresses by State Secretary Rosevear and Dr. J. H. Stucky, of Lexington.

The Mandolin and Guitar Club of Centre College, had a large and appreciative audience at Lebanon Friday evening. An elegant entertainment was given in their honor after the concert at the handsome home of Mr. Cobart, by the resident alumni of Centre College.

Mr. W. Scott Glore and beautiful bride left Wednesday night for Louisville and from there will go to New York for the remainder of the winter. May flowers of the richest fragrance grow beside their pathway through life and heaven's richest blessing ever attend them.

The funeral services of John Watson Brown were conducted by Dr. W. C. Roberts at his residence on Thursday. Appropriate scripture was read and music by the College Club. The remains were taken to Frankfort for burial, accompanied by Dr. Roberts and several students. It was difficult for his classmates to realize that this noble hearted, christian boy, so full of life and hope had been cut down so suddenly. Yet for those who live right there is no death, but a call from the Master to come up higher and rest under the shade of the trees in the bosom of God.

Dr. Roberts went to Lebanon Saturday and preached at the 1st Presbyterian church Sunday. Dr. E. H. Pearce, of Winchester, has returned home. Misses Martha and Elizabeth Field, of Louisville, are the guests of Miss Bessie McDowell. Miss Willis, of California, the popular visitor of Mrs. John Quisenberry has returned home. Miss Mary Engleman gave a card party in honor of Miss Hartwell, of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bowman, of Louisville, are the guests of Mrs. Jas. Kinnaird. Mrs. Anna McChord, of Springfield, has returned home after a visit to relatives here. Mrs. R. P. Jacobs gave a buffet luncheon Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Pinyrey, of New York, Miss Satterwhite, of Louisville, and Miss Symington, of Versailles. Mr. and Mrs. Harris, of Lexington, are guests of his sister, Mrs. J. P. Briggs. The Misses Lanier entertained at dinner Saturday in honor of Misses Elizabeth and Martha Field, of Louisville. Miss Bettie Ray, of Louisville, entertained a few friends at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wood, Friday evening. Mrs. Martha Batterton Bell, of Hartford, Ind., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Batterton. Miss Ada Shuck, of Lebanon, is the guest of Mrs. Frank Logan. Dr. Ed Green has decided to locate at Versailles.

LEUNG IRRITATION.

Is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. King's Pine-Tar-Honey will cure it, and give strength to the lungs that a cough or a cold will not settle there. Twenty five cents at Penny's Drug Store.

In the Texas Pan Handle thousands of cattle have frozen to death or died from lack of food, while the ground was covered with snow since Christmas. It is now covered with the 13th snow of the season, and the weather has been unusually cold. The losses are expected to aggregate several million dollars.

At Sistersville, W. Va., Harry Deffinbush, 28, was shot and killed on one of the most prominent streets by Miss Ella Bowen, 20. She claims Deffinbush had pursued her, tearing her clothing and threatening her if she left him.

THE DEADLY GRIP.

Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal germs. Don't neglect the "grip" or you will open the door to pneumonia and consumption and invite death. Its sure signs are chills with fever, headache, dull heavy pains, mucous discharge from the nose, sore throat and never-let-go cough. Don't waste precious time treating this cough with troches, tablets or poor, cheap syrups. Cure it at once with Dr. King's New Discovery, the infallible remedy for bronchial troubles. It kills the disease germs, heals the lungs and prevents the dreaded after effects from the malady. Price 50 cts. and $1.00. -oney back if not cured. A trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

John Walters, an eccentric citizen of Guthrie, Oklahoma, attempted to end his life by cutting himself in various places and bleeding freely. After a half hour he called in a doctor and offered him $500 if he would save his life, which he did.

A girl wrote as follows to her cousin: "We is all well; and mother's got his Terrix; brother Tom is got the Hupin Kaugh; and sister Ann has got a babe; and I hope these few lines will find you enjoying the same blessing."

COUGHED 25 YEARS.

I suffered 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine to no avail until I used Dr. King's Pine-Tar-Honey. This remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life. -J. B. Roell, Grantsburg, Ill.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Many young people skated to church in Lexington Sunday.

Rev. George W. Mills, of Junction City, has been called to the Christian church at Perryville.

Rev. G. W. Bolling is conducting a red hot meeting at the colored Baptist church. He says he is "going down in the river with lots of 'em" before he leaves here. He is assisted by Rev. C. A. Caulder, of Lexington.

Mrs. Campbell, whose charges of cruelty and inhuman treatment, caused the Methodist conference to expel Rev. Geo. F. Campbell, who stood high as a preacher and a man, has gone back to him, after claiming that she was insane when she made the charges which were untrue. Campbell is practicing law at Hopkinsville.

The 18th annual State convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Kentucky will be held at Henderson, Ky., February 16-19. The State committee has arranged a very strong and attractive program. Among the speakers are Right Rev. T. U. Dudley, D. D., and many others. The singing will be led by the Indiana Male Quartette. A special rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip has been secured, and the Henderson Association will entertain all delegates. Further particulars may be obtained of any association secretary in the State, or from Henry E. Rosevear, State secretary, Fourth and Broadway, Louisville.

In a letter to the Courier-Journal, Rev. George O. Barnes, now holding forth in Washington, says that $19 was the sum total received for his appeal through that paper of a month ago and that considering what he had done for Kentucky in the way of converting men and reducing crime and court costs, he thinks it a most pitiful return. Then he goes for Col. W. S. Forrester, of the Louisville Free Press, without calling his name, in a way which must make him feel ashamed of having written the "shameful article" accusing the preacher of being a fakir and a sponge. Closing Bro. Barnes says: How any man with a heart in his bosom could write about me, what I am told was the substance of that shameful article, I can not imagine. How any one with the instincts of a gentleman could manufacture "out of the whole cloth" so false and unjust a statement as he has put forth passes comprehension. But let it go, with the other and sadder incident. I don't think I shall make any more "appeals" to "my friends in Kentucky." I have learned my lesson. I will "take my medicine like a good little boy," and go on, loving friends and enemies, trusting the Lord; and "praying for those who despitefully use me and persecute me."

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Collector John W. Yerkes' revenue receipts for January reached $203,357. The tax on whisky aggregated $198,328.

William Logan, of Piqua, O., has been married seven times and is now a widower. He is 70 and has 16 children.

W. A. B. Davis, county superintendent of Rockcastle, was married at Livingston last week to Miss Alice Forbes of Madison.

Conrad H. White, aged 76, and Miss Margaret J. Sheets, 69, eloped from Valparaiso, Ind., to Morris, Ill., and were made one.

Mrs. Robert Worthington, of Charleston, S. C., wants a divorce because her husband chews tobacco and persists in spitting on the floor.

Lytle McHatton and wife, 84 and 82 years old respectively, died in a day of each other in Owen county and were buried in the same grave.

Mrs. Charles Fridin, a bride of a few days, was stricken with heart trouble at a hop at Kokomo, Ind., and died before she could be taken home.

At Westminster, O., Frank Blair, a law student, shot and instantly killed Edward Brovard and Miss Mary Anderson and then ended his own life. Blair was engaged to Miss Anderson and was jealous of Brovard, who had been very attentive to her.

At 3 P. M. to-morrow at the home of Capt. Jack Bosley, Smith D. Yowell, of the Louisville Store, and pretty Miss Mattie Bosley will be united in marriage. Eld. J. S. Kendrick, of Danville, will perform the ceremony. The wedding will be a very quiet one, only a few immediate friends being invited.

Mrs. Edmonia Tate Martin has filed suit for divorce from her husband, Albert Martin. She is a daughter of James W. Tate, former State treasurer. Abandonment and failure to provide is alleged. Last year Mrs. Tate sued for and was given judgment for about $12,000 life insurance on policies issued to her father, the decision holding that Tate, who absconded in 1887, was legally dead.

Gen. Breckinridge has discovered among the army rations issued to destitute Cubans hundreds of cases of spoiled beef, which even the starving people refused to eat.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF LINCOLN.

STANFORD, Feb. 5.—Two months ago I announced myself a candidate for the Legislature subject to your action, asking you to let me know your will upon such important questions as we might know would come before that body, pledging myself to obey you implicitly. Since arriving home I have been convinced that you desire to know my individual position about some things I shall plainly tell you.

Two years ago Capt. Blackburn was the caucus nominee for U. S. Senator and was not elected because of the refusal of some of the democratic members to support him. If I am the representative from Lincoln I shall support him from end to end unless the party in Lincoln tells me not to, which I truly hope they will not.

While not at home during the last presidential campaign, I supported the Chicago platform earnestly and think now that I sustained its principles quite successfully in a hand to hand fight with such "English gentlemen" as I encountered.

I am for that man whom the party may nominate for the presidency at its next convention, no matter whom, and for silver coinage at any quantity and ratio it may adopt.

I am for any democrat our county may select for our next governor, and if a delegate to the convention, will vote for him first and last without hesitation, but I was in the engagement at Cynthiana when Capt. Stone lost his leg and have a tender regard for all such companions that is undying, and I am glad of it.

I am quite a lively old man. Have lived among you all my life. Have voted democratic every time. If my open life entitles me to your confidence I earnestly solicit your united support.

To day I don't even know who but few of our committee are, but ask you and them to give my pretensions a fair consideration. I have always been a democrat upon principle and the party owes me nothing. Very Respectfully, J. H. MILLER.

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Mrs. Jane Smith, aged 84, is dead at Lancaster.

W. D. Cozatt has been given the agency at Lebanon Junction.

Lt. Lucien Young, of the navy, has been advanced three numbers.

There are 20 suspects in the small-pox pest house at Nicholasville.

Enoch Jordan, aged 83, dropped dead near Langford, Rockcastle county.

W. F. Thomas has been appointed postmaster at Palace, Russell county.

Mrs. Nannie Dozier, wife of Geo. O. Dozier, of Richmond, is dead, aged 35.

Mrs. Sarah Welsh, for years a merchant at Mt. Vernon, is dead at Mid. diesboro.

An unknown person shot and killed Deputy U. S. Marshal Edward Hall, near Pound Gap.

A Barbourville company will be the first to be mustered in under the reorganization of the State guard.

Miss Samantha, the bright daughter of W. H. Barkleroad, of London, died last week of consumption, aged 20.

Editor Dyche, of the London Echo, is rejoicing over the arrival of the first of a second crop of children. It is a girl.

A sanctified preacher named J. H. Bell, who has a charge in Russell county, is under arrest at Jamestown for bastardy.

Robert Ellis' appeal for pardon for carrying concealed weapons was turned down by Gov. Bradley. The offense was committed in Casey county.

Col. Albert E. Boone, the promoter of the Black Diamond route railroad, says contracts calling for the expenditure of $50,000,000 have been let.

Judge M. C. Sautley has appointed B. Casey Allen, son of Bush W. Allen, deceased, circuit clerk of Mercer county, until after the next November election.

Mrs. Gov. J. P. Eagle, who was the handsome Miss Oldham, of Madison county, and well-known here, is seriously ill and under treatment in Cincinnati.

In deciding the little farm in Woodford to his ex-wife, Gen. C. M. Clay provides that it shall go only to the heirs of her body and to no one related by blood or marriage either to him or her.

The officers of the 2d Battalion of the 4th Kentucky presented Maj. S. S. Morrow, of Somerset, with a handsome saber as a mark of their personal friendship and as a token of their esteem for him as an officer.

For the second time the court of appeals has sent back for new trial the case of the L. & N. railroad company against the Whitley county court. The suit grew out of an injury to a county road. The last trial resulted in a $7,500 verdict for the county. The railroad company appealed on the ground of excessive damages and the court holds that they are.

A chicken at Kokomo, Ind., lived six weeks without anything to eat or drink.

LANCASTER.

The Miles beef investigation has caused nearly as much talk in this city as there is about the quality of beef we have been using for years.

Prof. R. M. Elliott, of Kentucky University, lectured to the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon. The attendance was good and the lecture was well received. The association is getting on a solid footing and bids fair to do much good.

The ground hog didn't see his shadow and winter is still on. He saw that there was no prospect for spring and he went back. This is the true theory. If the sun had shone that day he would have remained out and spring would be on.

Our citizens propose to organize a kind of Tammany for the purpose of electing good business men to the office of magistrate, regardless of politics. This is a move that should be encouraged as the magistrates handle the public funds and considerable money is now being used for maintaining the roads.

The formation of trusts and combines is alarming. Even soap, oatmeal and whisky will be gobbled up and handled by the favored few. Ginseng, blackberries and butcher stuff will be the next to fall in. Tobacco combines only pay enough for leaf tobacco to keep the farmers raising it. Look out now for mean whisky at a high price. Everybody had better vote for the party that is opposed to trusts.

Miss Bertha Burnside, T. J. Hatcher, Mrs. M. D. Hughes, your correspondent and many others are suffering with the grip. I thought it was only a bad cold, but Satan has called into active being all the pains and aches and excruciating agonies that flesh is heir to and hurled them in one thunderbolt on suffering humanity. I wonder what Job would have done if he had taken the grip. Nothing but calomel will effect a cure.

The interview with Gov. Bradley published in the Enquirer, opposing expansion and imperialism, meets the hearty approval of many of his friends in this section. It is full of sound truth, proved by history, experience and the spirit of our institutions, and it should be read by all who favor distinct national existence and who desire to avert the evils that will follow the proposed annexation. I feel complimented in noting the fact that two reasons presented are similar to those given by me in a letter to the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Of course Garrard and neighboring counties will instruct for Dr. J. M. Frazer for the democratic nomination for the office of commissioner of agriculture, as he married a daughter of Judge Samuel Lusk and is therefore related to one of the largest and most powerful families in this county. The doctor was for many years an eminent physician, but for some time past he has been a successful farmer near Maysville. He is 60 years of age, highly cultured, intelligent and well qualified to fill the office, having also been a member of the Kentucky Legislature.

There are only three things that money will not do: It will not make a home happy, supply the place of a mother, nor buy a seat in Heaven; and as there are many men who care nothing about these three things, it is customary to hear them prate very flipantly about successful men, and when a man dies, the first question they ask is, "What estate did he leave?" The man, who asks the question, has saved a few thousand dollars and claims to be a financier, when he couldn't look over the books of a National Bank and make a statement of its condition. Such men only mistake parsimony for financiering. Many men, who are not worth a dollar, are better financiers, have contributed more to the good of mankind, made more money and, therefore, been more successful in life than they have. A financier may be broke today and rich tomorrow. It is nauseating to hear such men say that Bryan, Blackburn and Hardin should not hold high places because they are poor men. They could have been rich, but they prefer honor to riches, of a certain kind. It is only because they do not agree with them on the financial question. They said that Mr. Carlisle was a financier, and yet he was a poor man. But he agreed with them. Let us be consistent about these things. A miser is not necessarily a financier; he only knows how to save—a lesson I wish we had all learned early in life.

THE SAVAGES OF GRIP.

That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages—but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. King's New Discovery. When you feel a soreness in your bones and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal symptoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. King's New Discovery. It will promptly cure the worst cough, heal the inflamed membranes, kill the disease germs and prevent the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50 cts. and $1. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

Snow and other storms have continued in Colorado for over a month and one train was laid up 10 days. The snow is seven feet deep on level ground.

is the name to remember when buying Sarsaparilla. Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been curing people right along for nearly 50 years. That is why it is acknowledged to be the sovereign Sarsaparilla. It is the original and the standard. The record of the remedy is without a rival—a record that is written in the blood of thousands, purified by its power.

"I nursed a lady who was suffering from blood poisoning and must have contracted the disease from her; for I had four large sores, or ulcers, break out on my person. I doctored for a long time, both by external application and with various blood medicines; but in spite of all that I could do, the sores would not heal. At last I purchased six bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, thinking I would give it a thorough trial. Before the six bottles had been taken, the ulcers were healed, the skin sound and natural, and my health better than it had been for years. I have been well ever since. I had rather have one bottle of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla than three of any other kind."—Mrs. A. F. Taylor, Englewood, N. Dak.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - FEB. 7, 1909

W. P. WALTON.

DECEIVED to some extent by the story printed in the Louisville Dispatch of the effort to wreck the paper by men, who had failed to use it for a purpose, we gave the gist of it and said that if it was true, the management had been as much sinned against as sinning. Since then ex Editor Enloe, C. M. Lewis and Urey Woodson have each produced undisputable evidence that the story is not true and we hasten to correct any false impression that we may have created. According to all reports, some of which have come to us in a form that admits of no question of their truth, Mr. Woodson had at great personal sacrifice done what no other man offered to do and kept its sinking head above water, with no intention or desire to use it for any gubernatorial candidate, but to hold it in the true democratic line, so that whoever was nominated by the party, it could support without eating crow. As we said when first informed of Mr. Enloe's resignation and the cause of it, the only way that the paper can continue to have the confidence of democrats is that the management be reorganized, with no odor of Whallen or corporate influence about the garments of any of the members. The disclosures have had a serious effect on the business of the paper and shaken confidence in it to the extent that nothing save a new deal all round of people above suspicion can save it.

THE card of ex-Congressman W. J. Stone announcing his candidacy for governor has the true democratic ring and will make him many friends. He expresses himself unequivocally on all the questions of the day, declares for Bryan and the Chicago platform with an anti-expansion plank and does not think that the Goebel election law should be made an issue in the campaign. It has worked well so far and should be fully tested. Mr. Stone is a one-legged Confederate soldier, who even so badly handicapped, has fought the battles of life successfully, and while he does not come claiming that the people or the party owe him anything, he asks that his candidacy be given full consideration and if he is deemed worthy, that his high ambition be gratified. His candidacy will cut a big figure in the race or we are much mistaken.

A DISPATCH says that President McKinley is seriously considering the removal of Gen. Miles as commander of the army, because of his continued attacks on the war department. The president will hardly do anything so outrageous as to remove an officer simply because he makes a charge which he offers to prove by indisputable evidence. It would be much more in keeping with the fitness of things for him to fire his incompetent secretary of war and all others who had a hand in sending rotten beef for the army to eat.

THERE will be no financial legislation at this session of Congress. A republican caucus decided to stave the question off and still seem to keep faith with their constituents by adopting a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of 11 from the present House, who are also members of the 56th Congress, to consider currency legislation, and report to a caucus at the first session of the next House. Chairman Grosvenor will name the committee.

THE 3d regiment aboard the transport Minnesoka, bound for Matanzas, mutinied when Col. Smith ordered the men to the deck to have the hose turned on them to bathe. The weather was chilly and they said they would die first. When he saw that he was powerless, the colonel reluctantly countermanded the order. Col. Smith being a Kentuckian ought to have known that Kentuckians do not take water and not have tried to submit them to an indignity.

JUDGE J. M. UNTHANK, the well-known lawyer and politician, is dead at Pineville. When he was elected as a democrat to the Legislature from the republican county of Bell, owing to dissensions in that party, and was being congratulated on it at Frankfort and complimented for his apparent great popularity, he replied: "Yes, I beat two d--n republicans and could have beat a half dozen of them."

GOV. BROWN told Gov. Bradley that he just wanted to be governor again even for a week, so as to spite certain soreheads who do not want to see him again in the executive chair. It is well for his pocket book and his feelings, that he found that there were more so-called soreheads than others and gave up his intention to spite before he was despitely used.

THE Cunningham Bros. have enlarged the Middlesboro Record to a six-column paper and increased the price to $1 a year. The paper is greatly improved except its unsightly editorial page, which is set wide, after the devilish invention of the yellow journals.

WAR has begun again. This time with those for whose independence and benefit the other was waged. The insurgents attacked the American lines at Manila Saturday night and fighting began, lasting all night. The American ships took a hand and Gen. Otis assuming the offensive at daylight Sunday, soon had the insurgents on the run and a number of villages, heretofore held by them, were taken. At noon Sunday the firing ceased and at 1:35, Gen. Otis cabled the war department that the situation was most satisfactory and that the troops were in most excellent health and spirits. The Americans had expected the attack and were fully prepared for it, the ships being so stationed by Dewey as to render the best assistance. The number of killed among the insurgents is stated at 1,000, while the American loss is said to be 54 killed and 200 wounded.

Agonillo, Aguinaldo's representative at Washington, skipped as soon as he heard the news and was soon in Canada. His misrepresentations had encouraged hostilities and were largely instrumental in inciting the attack.

There seems to have been no fighting since Sunday, the Filipinos evidently having gotten enough of it.

THE 4th Kentucky has not been noted for its discipline and soldierly qualities and it is plain to read between the lines of a letter from Gen. Frank to Lt. Col. Murray, whose fault he thinks it is, when he says: "I take pleasure in bearing testimony to your merits as an officer and to your efforts to improve the discipline and efficiency of the regiment, especially at times when you have been in command of it." In his effort to run the government and its war at the same time, Col. Colson undertook rather too much for a small man. In other words he bit off more than he could masticate. He says, however, he never expected to draw two salaries, but accepted a colonel's commission because "I was to some extent instrumental in bringing about the war with Spain, and I considered it to be my duty to help do the fighting."

THE peace treaty was adopted yesterday afternoon by three over the necessary two-thirds majority. Jones, McLaughlin and McEnery coming over at the last. The question was in grave doubt up to the vote and McEnery is said to have been won over by the promise of the adoption of his resolution that it is not the intention of this government to make the Philippines an integral part of the U. S. nor the Filipinos citizens of this country. The anti-imperialists claim a victory in this. The administration is satisfied and the country will be pleased to know that an extra session of Congress will not be necessary.

THE Kentucky Legislature had some fun trying to fix ground hog day, and now the Indiana Legislature is having a little sport in that direction. A bill changing the day from Feb. 2 to the first Monday after the full moon in the month of March was presented, when the presiding officer referred it to a committee composed of the chairmen of the democratic and republican caucuses.

THE republican expansionists claim that the democratic and other opponents of the treaty are responsible for the battle with the insurgents, while there seems to be equally as good grounds for the claim that it was precipitated by the administration to force the adoption of the treaty.

JUDGE GUFFY has at last filed his dissenting opinion in the election-law case, but as it is only for campaign purposes and not necessarily for publication in a democratic paper, we dismiss it, with the statement that the old man says it is "agin the constitution."

THE editor of the Mt. Vernon Signal is as long winded as the late Senator Evans, of New York. In its leader last week the closing sentence had 130 words in it and strange to say he made his meaning as clear as mud.

JUDGE BOREING says in an interview that Gen. Taylor is the best man the republicans have for governor. Alas that a party should be reduced to such straits and may the devil soon get his own.

POLITICAL POINTS.

After a hot contest, George B. Weller gets the Bardstown post-office. Hon. O. J. Minor, who represented Boyle in the last Legislature, is a candidate for re-election.

Pugh let the voters decide who shall be postmaster at Cynthiana and G. M. Dickey won by a plurality of 111.

The Senate declined to give old man McKinley Aid Society Palmer but $50 a month pension, which is $50 too much.

C. M. Lewis resigned as a member of the democratic State central committee, and A. G. Rhea was chosen to fill the vacancy.

The Hull Army bill calls for an increase of 941 in the number of officers—725 of them in the line and 214 of them staff officers.

The court of appeals decided that corporations, though they have not accepted the provisions of the constitution, are entitled to protection against mob violence.

The Rivers and Harbors bill, carrying over $30,000,000, the largest sum ever appropriated in a River and Harbor bill, was passed by the House by a vote of 160 to 7.

No other candidate for the Legislature announced by Feb. 1, and J. Morgan Chinn was made the democratic nominee for representative by the Mercer county committee Friday.

If the House adopts the committee's report, Wheeler, Colson et al, who secured army commissions, will have to walk the plank. The committee decides that the act vacated their seats in Congress.

The States North of the Potomac will have a solid republican delegation in the Senate after March 4. Never since the war, nor during the war, nor even before the war, has a condition like this prevailed.

The 55th Congress "gives up the ghost" on the 3d of March, constructively. It will probably hang on till noon of Sunday, March 4, under the parliamentary fiction that the legislative day of the third does not end till 12 o'clock meridian of the 4th.

Grover Cleveland, John G. Carlisle, Andrew Carnegie, William L. Wilson, Samuel Gompers, Carl Schurz and 20 others forwarded a petition to the Senate opposing the ratification of the peace treaty unless there is a provision against annexation of the Philippines and Porto Rico.

If Davison will take depositions all over the Eleventh district he might find enough men who would have voted for him had they lived in the Eighth to have elected him to Congress. Fortunately for Gilbert, however, he was running for Congress in the Eighth and not in the Eleventh.—Shelby Sentinel.

The authorities say that if Bob Blanks gets well of small-pox he will be in such a poor condition by Feb. 23, that it would be bad form to hang him.

Hansford & James' store at Harrodsburg, was robbed three nights in succession and a watch was placed on it. Saturday night at midnight, George Moshal, a Negro, approached and, unlocking the door went in where he was taken dead to rights.

Some Plain Facts.

Grave errors, injustice, wrongs of greater or less degree, arise from lack of knowledge of the truth, and more frequently from deception.

The most infamous case on record of deception and injustice is the attempt to demonetize silver as a money of final redemption in the United States.

There is no learned judge, skilled lawyer, or court of justice that is capable of reconciling the effort with the constitutional laws that govern the issue of money in this country.

The people have been deceived, officials in power, chosen to administer justice under the laws, and given aid to the scheme that has paralyzed industry, reduced property values one-half, and beggared millions.

There is no authority of law, either specific or by inference, by which gold alone is made the only money with which to discharge debts, either public or private. The effort to make it so is unconstitutional and a national calamity.

Plain and ample information, facts, and truth, concerning this almost successful scheme to corner the wealth of the people, is now being printed in the Cincinnati Enquirer, a newspaper which the combined power of money has failed to muzzle or buy.

The Weekly Enquirer is only 75c a year. The address is Enquirer Company, Cincinnati, O.

THE turnpike question is getting all into a stew again in Boyle because the court will not pay for that portions of within city limits.

A GREAT many people are losing hogs presumably from cholera. One man, the writer, lost half he had, and the other one shows signs of an early collapse.

FEBRUARY is short, but it is loud. Besides ground hog day, there is Lincoln's birthday, Washington's birthday and St. Valentine's Day, to celebrate.

THERE are only three barrooms in town now. The one in the Myers House basement closed last night for good or as long as Proprietor E. H. Beazley has a say in the matter.

HELD OVER.—Edmond Simpson, colored, was tried before Judge Bailey Saturday for cruel treatment of his wife, and held over to circuit court in $50 bond, which he gave.

THIS is a great climate for pneumonia and grip. Tuesday night the mercury was about 10 below zero. Thursday morning it had climbed to 58, or a difference of 68 degrees in 48 hours. No wonder we cough and ache and die.

NO POLE.—A lady who transacts business for her husband paid his taxes the other day, but before doing so had the sheriff explain the several items: "To one pole, $1.50," he read. "Oh, I can't pay that," she said. "My husband hasn't got any pole." It was explained to her that it was p-o-l-e, meaning head, but she still wasn't satisfied and paid under protest.

If you have reason to go to the ungodly city of Lexington and should meet a pretty girl, who in a modest and demure manner, wants you to advance her a few dollars on a rig, which belongs to her mother who is sick in Georgetown, do not be a sucker and take the bait. The girl, though ever so pretty, is a fraud and the ring is brass, and she has worked many an old fool with the racket.

POLK MILLER didn't have as good an audience as he deserved, but more people were present than we expected considering the many drawbacks. His stories of the old time Negro, some laughable, some pathetic, together with his powers of mimicry and music, make his entertainment the most delightful imaginable. He is besides a prince of good fellows and is if possible, as entertaining off as on the platform.

TAX RATE REDUCED.—Stanford is in better shape financially than for years. The entire indebtedness, both floating and bonded, has been wiped out, leaving about $100 in the treasury. Clerk L. R. Hughes tells us that during 1898 some $3,000 of old accounts were settled and that matters will now be conducted on the cash basis. Another, and a still more gratifying item, is that the council has reduced taxation for the year from 75c to 50c on the $100. It has been at the former ever since the constitution put that as the limit. The council also rescinded the order granting liquor license to V. H. Hall and granted it to W. O. Speed instead.

THE court of appeals has affirmed with damages the $4,000 verdict obtained against the L. & N., in Lincoln by Dan Cooley for the killing of his son Dave Cooley, making the amount now about $5,000. The young man was a brakeman on the road and was knocked off his car by a low bridge. Mr. Harvey Helm, attorney in the case, tells us that the jury would have given a verdict for over $12,000, but for a misapprehension. Vital statistics show that a man of Cooley's age, 21, has a reasonable expectancy of 32 more years of life. The jury found from the evidence that he was making $400 a year above expenses, but thinking he must die at 32, instead of living that many years, only found a verdict for 10 years at $400.

If your taxes are not paid on or before next Monday, Feb. 13, county court day, your property will be advertised at once and sold. This means you if you fail to comply. S. M. Owens, sheriff.

JOHN H. MILLER, Esq., is formally announced for the Legislature in this issue and he also takes occasion to tell the people how he stands on the questions of the day. Mr. Miller says the crowning ambition of his life is to go to the Legislature and he feels confident his people will gratify it.

A CERTAIN Stanford man who sometimes gets in his cups, went home late the other night when his wife in no pleasant tone of voice asked him where he had been. "Jest to pray meeting," he innocently replied. "Your breath don't smell like it," snapped the wife. "Now you think I've been drinking but you are wrong again," he answered. "It was communion night."

FEET FROZE.—During one of the cold nights of last week Brakeman Saunders, one of Capt. Bailey's crew on the night Kentucky Central, while flagging a train at Rowland, had his feet to freeze. After suffering great pain for several days it was necessary to have one of his toes amputated. His doctor thought for a while that an entire foot would have to come off.

NO TRACE.—Samuel W. Menefee, of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, Danville, telephoned to Marshal O. J. Newland last night to watch out for and arrest two of the inmates of that institution, who yesterday left to go hunting. He says the boys are 14 and 16 years old respectively. Marshal Newland searched the town from center to circumference, but failed to find any trace of them.

In a lengthy card in the London Echo a fellow signing himself George C. Moore, makes a pitiful plea to the republicans of Jackson county to swear that they would have voted for Davison for Congress had Jackson county been kept in the Eighth district. This is Davison's plan to get the seat. Hon. G. G. Gilbert was elected to and he spent several days in that county taking testimony. Moore says the gray gelding is a great man, an able one and "possessed of much integrity and enthusiasm." If the Jackson county rads had rather have Davison than Boring to represent them, may the Lord help them, but we sympathize with the judge in coming out second best in such a contest.

JAIL DELIVERY THWARTED.—But for the disclosures made by John Haley, who was discharged from jail Thursday, because no prosecuting witness appeared against him, there might have been a jail delivery of the 18 prisoners therein confined. For several days before his release, Haley had been making suspicious signs to Jailer DeBord, but says he was afraid to speak out, while confined with the crowd. His disclosures caused the jailer to summon help and make a double-quick examination. The story proved all too true. One of the big bars in the cell in the upper tier, in which were confined Lawyer E. K. Wilson, of London, charged with seduction and murder, and Tom Baker, under a life sentence for the murder of Sheriff White, of Clay county, had been sawed in two at the bottom and about half sawed through above. Inclosing the cells, which are made of iron bars, is a steel cage with a walk for the prisoners, into which they are let during the day. One of the steel bars had been sawed at, but as one of the prisoners remarked, no saw could go through them. The cell occupied by Haley and Pennington, a life sentence man from Leslie, in the lower tier, was sawed very much as the other and it was the intention for Pennington to climb through the aperture in the water closet to the upper cells and escape from the window to the roof of the office, after the steel bars of the cell and those of the window, had been sawed. Judge Bailey had the prisoners brought before him, when Baker and Pennington swore that Haley brought the saws with him and that there were 11 of them, Baker claiming that he had given him $2 for five of them. Wilson testified that he did not know where they came from and that the work of sawing, in which he took no part, began two days after his arrival and that most of the sawing was done about supper getting time, while all hands made noise and one blew a French harp. Search was made for the saws and all but two were found or accounted for and the impression is that the two are still in the jail somewhere. To make the prisoners give them up, Judge Bailey told the jailer to resort to any punishment he deemed necessary, and when he started to put the screws to Baker he very quickly came to time. The saws are a little over six inches long and 4 inches in width. Haley claims that the saws were brought into jail in the coffee pot, which comes with Wilson's dinner sent from the hotel, but this is evidently a mistake. Certainly if they were the hotel people know nothing of it. Wilson, however, confessed that he had used the coffee pot to smuggle notes to barkeepers. Repairs have been made and it will be safe to bet that cells and prisoners will be even more closely watched than ever.

NOTHING in town can touch it—Chase & Sanborn's Coffee. Higgins & McKinney.

OUR stock of Canned Goods—Dried Fruits and eatables is full and complete. Call and see us. Warren & Shanks.

THE g. h. is somewhat of a liar himself. Instead of winter being "broke," it seems to have spit on its hands and taken a fresh hold. Rain and snow have alternated for four days and a heavy sleet has prevailed since Sunday. Five inches of snow cover the ground and it was still coming this morning, the thermometer registering 15.

KILLING IN ROCKCASTLE.—Editor James Maret telephoned us this morning from Mt. Vernon that Elza Langford shot and killed William Hundley in Jop Langford's store on Brush creek yesterday afternoon. The Langfords had been at outs with Hundley since he killed John Lawrence some six months ago. It is claimed that Hundley fired first at Langford, who has not yet been arrested. Pate and Elza Langford were out on bail for killing Jailer C. L. King and Hundley, who was tried last week for killing Lawrence, had a bung jury.
